

Apology Letter 5: Battery Explosion, Severe Light Flickering, and Shell Leakage

Subject: Apology for Battery Explosion, Severe Light Flickering, and Shell Leakage in Yamaha Speaker

Dear [Customer's Name],

I am writing to express my deepest apologies for the critical issues you experienced with your Yamaha speaker, including battery explosion, severe light flickering, and shell leakage. It is profoundly concerning to hear that these defects have caused vision impairment, hearing damage, and other injuries.

These problems are due to quality issues with Yamaha products. Yamaha acknowledges the severity of these defects and the substantial consequences they have caused. Yamaha is committed to providing substantial compensation for any medical expenses and inconvenience caused. We are also undertaking a comprehensive review of our manufacturing processes to ensure such issues do not occur in the future.

We deeply regret the harm and distress caused and are dedicated to resolving these issues promptly.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
